Dear Mrs Chapman: Have you ever discovered the family name of MARY - wife of Newitt Drew, of Isle of Wight and Southampton Counties? She appears in conveyances of land with her husband in Southampton County deeds in 17 ; but was dead (evidently) when Newitt Drew made his will in 17 in Southampton County.

What would be charge for turning into Isle of Wight records for the family name of this Mary? Her identity

Mrs Lewis L. Chapman,
Smithfield, Virginia -

Dear Mrs Chapman: Thank you very much for your letter of recent date. First let me say that your check for annual dues to the Society has been credited to our account.

And now for the Drew matter. I am enclosing check for $10.00 for fee and expense of going to Courtland in order to try and solve the problem which engages me at present.

The will of William Blunt, Sr., of Southampton County, dated ~~Sept~~ June 3, 1787; probated Sept. 13, 1787 names wife Mary; son William Blunt (executor); grandson JESSE DREW; daughter Ann, wife of William Wright; daughter Mary Blunt; daughter Rebeckah wife of Littleberry Mason. Overseers of will: friends Benjamin Blunt, Thomas Turner, John Turner and brother John Blunt.

The question involved is: was "grandson JESSE DREW", of William Blunt, Sr's will, identical with JESSE DREW named as son in the will of Newitt Drew, of Southampton County, dated Sept 10, 1774; probated Augt 10, 1775.

Of course it may turn out that William Blunt's grandson Jesse Drew was a son of Edward Drew and grandson of Newitt Drew. If you will read Newitt Drew's Will (Southampton Co. Will Book 3, page 132 — the passage: "and that equal part which I intended my daughter Eilah Figures and my son Edward Drew to be divided between their surviving children." Thus Newitt Drew's son Edward Drew predeceased his father evidently leaving issue. I have not found out what became of this Edward Drew — A former report made to me does not show that this Edward Drew left any will or that there was any administration on his estate naming heirs — recorded in Southampton County.

There was a will of one Jesse Drew of Southampton Co. dated Sept 27, 1776; probated Sept. 12, 1782 naming Jeremiah Drew and Thomas Fitzhugh. Certainly he could not have been the grandson Jesse Drew named in William Blunt, Sr's will dated June 3, 1787.

The Jesse Drew of will 1776 - 1782 may have been Jesse son of Newitt Drew, will 1774-1775 — and Jesse Drew grandson of William Blunt Sr — another Jesse Drew.

However, I am quite willing to venture this day's search.

Should this "break down" & we find that the wife of Newitt Drew (will 1774-1775) was not a daughter of William Blunt Sr — then I shall want you to see if by any possibility you can find out the family name of Mary — wife of Newitt Drew. Newitt Drew's wife was evidently dead when he made his will Sept 10, 1774. However her name was MARY — as we learn from his deed recorded in Southampton County — the first dated

Jany 30, 1758 Newitt Drew and Mary, his w/e to Arthur Waller (Deed Book 2, page 219) and the second dated Oct. 10, 1765 Newitt Drew and Mary Drew to "our beloved son Jeremiah Drew" (Deed Book 3, page 296)

It is the family name of this Mary Drew. I am searching for - Newitt Drew was born in Surry County and went with his father Edward Drew to Isle of Wight County (I have the Drew line back of Newitt Drew all worked out). Is there any Bed in Isle of Wight records that shows who was Mary wife of Newitt Drew - if she was not the daughter of William Blunt Sr? Your Isle of Wight Co. wills abstracts do not give the lady -

I hope that you may be able to settle this vexing question.

Anything that you may find to help me will be most gratefully received - and any suggestions that you may make I shall be glad to have.

Mrs Lawrence joins me in kindest regards.

Very truly yours
Clayton Lawrence.
